The Drip in the Sink

Greg spent the day planting mint with Mom.

Now for a drink and then bed.

He wanted some water to drink,
but...

Drip, drop, drip.

Greg got up and went to see what was dripping.

He bent down and looked. He saw it was the sink.

"We have to mend this sink."

"Who can lend me a hand and fix the sink? Now, let me think, Mom or Dad?"

Greg went to get Dad.

He's the one who will fix the sink!

As Greg bent down to tell Dad,
his dad had to blink and stand.

"Is this a prank?" Dad said.

"No, Dad. I want to tell you, the sink's dripping."

"I can't fix the sink," said Greg.

"What a bind! I lend a hand. I can't fix that sink. Your mom can! She can fix it in a blink!"

They went to Mom.

"The sink has a drip. Can you lend a hand?" they said.

Mom had to blink. She asked if it was a prank too.

"I can fix any sink," said Mom.

"Will you lend me a hand?"

It was fixed in a blink!

"Thank you, Mom! I think I want a drink," said Greg.
