The Badge Games

Gretchen and her friends, Midge and Fletcher, visited Hatch Park. It was time for The Badge Games!

Kids competed to win badges. They made a pledge to have fun and play nice.

"This time, I will win that kitchen contest," reflected Gretchen.

HATCH PARK

THE BADGE GAMES

They watched the judge show them how to stretch. They ran to the edge of the ridge and back.

"Let's go!" said Gretchen, Midge, and Fletcher.

THE BADGE GAMES

Game one was dodgeball.

"I know how to play," Gretchen said.

But then, Gretchen froze! Her legs just wouldn't budge!

Fletcher won at dodgeball. Fletcher got the dodgeball badge.

The next contest was to sketch something in a kitchen.

Midge's mom is a sketch artist. So Midge watches her mom sketch a lot.

She sketched some ketchup. Midge got the sketching badge.

Next, they played catch on the bridge.

Midge pitched the bag. Fletcher nudged Gretchen out of the way. Gretchen missed the bag. Then Fletcher snatched it!

"We made a pledge to play nice!" said Gretchen.

"I'm sorry!" Fletcher said as he trudged on.

HEY!

Last was the kitchen contest.

"Now we are making porridge," the judge said.

"I'll be a judge for the porridge!" said Midge.

Gretchen knew how to make porridge.

Fletcher gave her a nudge and said, "I know you can win this, Gretchen!"

Gretchen got milk from the fridge to make the porridge. She added a smidge of salt and a lot of chocolate. It looked like sludge!

Then, the judge wrote "First Place!" on her badge!

"I knew you could do it!" Fletcher said.

Gretchen smiled.

The Badge Games are the best!
