The Fort

One morning, Norma and Ford chatted. They wanted to make a fort in the forest. Then, they planned their fort.

"What sort of fort do we want?"
Norma asked.

"I want a short fort to sit down in,"
Ford said.

Norma and Ford grabbed more sticks to make the platform for their fort. Norma tried to watch her step, but she tripped.

"Watch out for the thorns!" Ford said.

Norma hopped back up.

"I almost fell into those thorns!" she said.

They stopped and looked at the platform.

"Okay! We're done with that chore! Now let's start to form the fort!" Norma said.

Ford flipped over some sticks. He put them on the fort. Now the sides of the fort were all formed.

Norma stepped back and clapped!

"Next, we make the top," Ford said.

"But what do we use?"

"I know a shortcut!" said Norma. She rushed home and grabbed a worn-out blanket.

"This'll help our fort when it's storming," said Norma.

Norma and Ford stretched it wide.

"Oh no! It ripped!" Ford cried.

They looked at the torn top.

"I know!" Norma said.

She grabbed some more sticks from the forest.

Then, she and Ford formed the sticks for the top of the fort.

"Now our fort has a top!" Norma said.

"It's done!" Ford said and clapped.

"I'm worn out! Let's rest in our fort!"

Norma said.

"This is the best fort!" Ford bragged.

Norma nodded.
