Ginny in the City

Hi! My name is Ginny. I live in New York City.

I live with my mom and my dad in a huge, cement
apartment building.

There is a nice gentleman who works at the door.

550

This morning, my mom and dad took me for some exercise in Central Park. I chased a few agile squirrels and raced with my pal George. I won twice!

I was out of energy and it was time to go. As we traced our path back home, I noticed a strange change.

We were going a different way!
Then, I saw it in the distance.

Dog Groomer

We were at the groomer's place!
That's where they give you a gentle bath and fancy haircut.

My mom and dad imagined it was nice, but I am not convinced. I was left to face the groomer alone!

The bath was decent. I paced in a cage without much space as I waited for my haircut. I braced for the groomer's pounce, but all of a sudden, he noticed a large dog walk in. This was my chance. I dodged through the gate and ran out the door. Success!

I raced down the streets. I leapt across the bridge. I charged past the hot dog stand. I didn't even notice the pigeons. I wedged through the door, barked at the gentleman, and bounced in the elevator.

When I glanced up, I noticed my dad!

He had the strangest look on his face as I jumped into his arms. He gave me a warm embrace. It was an exciting day in the city!

Phonics Fun

- Write 3 words from the book.
- Note how many letters and sounds are in each word.
- Are they the same or different? Why? (e.g. Meat has 4 letters and 3 sounds because the ea makes 1 sound.)

Comprehension

How would you describe Ginny's traits? Why?
