Grandma Blige says, "Time for a ride."

We drive five miles to a nice site.

While we drive, we sing songs.

Here we are!

We hike up the side of a small hill.

The sun shines on the pine trees.

We see a hive on the side of a vine.

Plus, we see nine buzzing bees!

We take our time on the hike.

Grandma says, "Brice, time for a nice gift!"

In her sack is a lime and pink kite.

I like the kite!

The kite is twice my size!

We see it rise and rise.

The wind makes it slide and glide from side to side.

While the kite is over us, we see some white gulls.

Their wings are so wide. Their wings help them dive about the kite.

Grandma grabs the line as the gulls tug on the kite.

The kite is safe! Now it is time to dine. Grandma sits beside me.

We have rice cakes. I like to bite into them. Crunch!

We have ripe white grapes. They are cold and soft.

It is time to go. We hike down
the side of the hill.

Grandma says the kite is mine to take with me. I am glad to oblige!

I smile on the ride back. We had such a nice time!
