video about the book.

Brook and Coop loved to be outside on cool nights. They took wood and some good books to the campsite.

Dad told Brook he would get a stool.

When the tent was pitched,
Brook and Coop sat down to relax.

The burning firewood kept them warm in the cool night. Brook wished they had food.

Dad told Brook and Coop to look up.

They took a look up at the moon. It was huge! They sat under the cool moon and told each other the scoop from the day.

Brook told Coop it looked like they were under a roof made of stars. Coop said that was a hoot! A roof made of stars!

Soon, Brook took out her book. It was so good!

Using the moon's light was proof it was a bright moon.

Coop was hooked on the book.

In the book, a raccoon scooted down a dark path and hid in a nook. It was a bit spooky, but the moonlight made it easy to enjoy.

The wood had burned down.
Dad took one more look at the moon. He told Brook to close the book.

They didn't need a flashlight to scoot inside. They had the moonlight.
