Dorian and Zora love fall at Jordan's Farm!

They start at the pumpkin patch.
Then they always take a short ride on horses. They like to look for acorns.

At last, it is time for the corn maze!

They saw how tall the corn was this time when they stopped at the corn!

“Let’s see how fast we can sort it out,” said Dorian.

He waved to Zora and tore into the corn maze.

Zora tore across the yard and into the corn maze too. But Dorian was fast! She could not catch up with him. Dorian was gone!

Zora did a zig zag across the paths. She came to a fork in the corn maze. Zora was torn. Which way to go?

Zora tried going left. That path was short. Then it was done. Zora was forced to go back where she was before. Still no Dorian!

Dorian was too short to see over the corn. He was getting more and more lost.

Dorian called, "Zora! I'm looking for you! And I'm done running away!"

Zora yelled back with force,
“Dorian! I’m looking for you!”

They went past more corn.
CRASH! Dorian ran into Zora!

Their hands formed a high five.
They grinned!

"Let's get out of here!" said Dorian.

"Can you see the end of the corn?" asked Zora.

"Look! I see horses and acorns," Dorian said.

"Run for it!" said Zora. "Let's go home!"
