Have you ever seen Cowboy Calvin?
He has dark brown hair and big eyes like an owl. His brow is scrunched like he is about to growl.
And his round face always has a frown. That is why he is called "The Scowling Cowboy" all over town!

Cowboy Calvin lives in the house just down the road from the playground. You can often find him out on the plow, or looking for a new sprout in his garden on the farm. Other times, he is walking around town, staring at the clouds, or counting the flowers on his land.

Now why does Cowboy Calvin always have a scowl? Because he is a cowboy without a cow!

“Today, I will find my lost cow,” he says.

He makes a vow.

“I will look around all over town until she is found! But how will I ever find her in this big town?” he says.

First, he goes downtown to gather a crowd to help. He rounds up a team to look around just south of his house.

He sends the team to scout the ground near the tower. Then, he hears a sound behind him. Is it his missing cow?

SQUEAK!

No, it is just a mouse. Cowboy Calvin frowns. Then, he hears a howl. But, it is just the old hound.

POW! He stubs his toe on a round rock.

“Ouch!” he says as he bounces up and down on one foot.

Just as Cowboy Calvin is about to give up...

OUCH!

"We found her!" he hears some people yell in the background.

He has a proud smile as he runs downhill to the noise. He wipes his brow and lets out a loud shout.

"WOW! They found my cow!"

Now his scowl is gone forever.

Phonics Fun

- Set a timer for 1 minute.
- With a partner, write as many ow, ou words as you can.
- When the timer goes off, count your words.

Comprehension

Why do you think the author chose to solve the problem by having Calvin go downtown?
