"Fall is here!" Kat squeals with glee.

"It's the best season, and I'm eager to plan the Stony Creek Valley feast!"

Heaps of Kat's pals travel to the valley for this event each fall.

Kat needs to decorate for the feast. She looks in the garden. She can see orange, red, and green leaves gleaming in the trees.

Kat leans through the tree branches to reach them. She is pleased.

"These will be perfect for the feast!" Kat screeches.

Next, Kat gets together all the key things she needs for the meal.

"Hmm, we can eat turkey meat, peas, and beans. There is sweet tea to drink and there are honey buns for a treat!" she realizes.

"And...every feast needs a sprig of parsley!" Kat beams.

Kat gathers the three seasonings she needs.

"Now where's my honey..." Kat laughs.

She reaches deep in the cabinet to feel for it. She keeps it in the back.

"I'm eager to get to work," Kat reasons.

She heats the turkey meat.

After the meal is complete, Kat deep cleans the grease in the kitchen.

"It's time to find a dream place for the feast," she squeaks. She peeks through the glass and sees the perfect spot in the valley next to the stream beneath a canopy of trees.

"I need to make it there to set up before my pals greet me," she says to herself.

The meal is set on a new,
clean cloth.

"Now I need to decorate for my feast!" she squeals.

Kat places the leaves and parsley.
Then, she puts each dish on the neat cloth.

She finishes just in time to sneak some tea.

Old and new friends travel to
Stony Creek Valley for the feast.

Kat greets her friends.

"Please, take a seat everyone."

"Let's eat!" she says with a laugh.

It is a perfect feast!

Kat is eager to plan for next fall!
