video about the book.

Piper got a kite. She likes her kite so much! Piper wants to fly it with a pal.

"Hi, Mike. Do you want to see my kite?"

"Not now," says Mike.

He is going to ride bikes with Giles and Brice.

Piper sees Jane.

Piper says, "I have a nice kite.
It's lime green. Do you want to see it?"

"Not now," says Jane.

She is looking at a book about some white mice.

It's time for lunch. Piper takes a bite.

"No one wants to play with my kite!"

"Mike and Jane are just doing their things," says Mom with a smile.

Piper nods.

"Piper, you can fly your nice kite while I am here," says Mom.

Piper takes Mom's advice. She takes out her kite.

Miles rushes to her. Piper rubs the dog's back.

"You like to play with me, Miles!
Let's go!"

Piper runs with the kite. Wind takes the kite. It begins to rise!

It rises fast. Then, the kite takes a big dive. It slides into the grass.

Crash!

Piper will try the kite a second time.

"We will time it with the wind."

When the wind picks up, Piper yells, "Go!"

She runs with Miles at her side. The kite rises. Piper lets the string out.

Piper likes seeing the kite shine in the sun.

Miles barks. He is thrilled too! Piper's pal Odile is walking by.

Odile says, "Can I try that nice kite?"

They all smile.
