Geoff the giraffe had a huge problem. His job at the office was dull. He was tired of the paper and pencils and just taking up space.

Geoff wanted more! He needed a nicer job.

Geoff asked for help. Alice the elephant had an idea. Geoff could work with her at the gym center.

Alice was a cycling teacher at the gym. She told Geoff she would try to find him a class to teach too.

Geoff went with Alice to the gym.
He was in luck! The gym needed a new dance teacher!

Geoff tried to do his best. He got on the stage and tried to dance.
Can you imagine? He cannot dance with grace!

Poor Geoff! With a sad face, Geoff left the gym. Geoff was so glum that he almost did not notice Alice cycling up next to him. Alice had one more idea.

Her friend Gerry needed help at the circus.

Alice knew Geoff might be the right animal for the job! Would Geoff like to try? YES!

At the circus, Gerry told Geoff the giant ladder for the trapeze had broken! Could Geoff help the animals reach the trapeze? YES!

Geoff practiced with the acrobats that very afternoon. He got the gist of his new job. He stood in the center of the circus ring with grace as the animals used his huge neck like a ladder.

Geoff helped them on stage!

During that night's circus performance, Geoff was fascinated by the racing sloth on a scooter, the prancing elephants, and the swinging monkeys.

Geoff stood in the center of it all. He would never be bored with this gem of a job!
