"Did you hear me?" Claire said. "I'll try not to have any more fear this year."

"Yes, yes, I hear," said Clark.

"I did hear you. But last year at the fair, you stopped at the stairs," Clark said.

Claire tucked some hair behind her ear.

"Not this year!" she said. "You just wait and see."

As they came near the fair, Claire saw the slide. Some fear started creeping in.

"Oh dear!" she said to herself.

"This year I have to be brave!

It will be unfair to Clark if I just disappear from the fair! Remember, Claire, no fear! No tears!"

Someone on a chair took their pair of tickets.

"Enjoy the fair!" he said.

First, they saw the dairy cows.

"That cow has pink ears!" Claire said.

After the dairy cows, Claire cleared her throat.

"It's slide time," she said to herself.

"Remember, no fear! No tears!"

She was at the rear of the line.

Claire took a breath of air.

"No need to fear, Claire!" Clark said.

"You can do it this year!"

They walked up the stairs.

"No fear, no tears!" Claire said.

A spot cleared. She sat down.

Then, Claire's hair flew in the fresh air.

"I love the fair slide!" Claire said.

"No fear and no tears!" Clark said.

They walked up the stairs again!
