It was almost the last day of class at Northstar. Flora adored the fun times she had with classmates. Flora was glad for all of their hard work and more.

Flora liked to sort and do math.
She loved playing sports. She always tried to support her classmates.

Flora liked art the best. She made horses, orcas, and golden acorns.

Flora asked Mr. Ford if she could help when the class made a mess.

"Yes," Mr. Ford replied.

Flora tidied up the class. She liked that chore.

Flora also liked music. They even sang a short song before a big game.

When they were done, they had popcorn and s'mores.

Flora's work didn't end in class.
She made time to do more chores
at home.

Flora liked helping her mom and dad. Or shopping with them in stores.

On the last day at Northstar, the kids wore their best. They formed a line before marching in for the Northstar bash.

The horn went off. Time to storm in! There were balloons and all sorts of snacks.

The Northstar kids came up for their awards. Flora scored one for being good at helping!

Everyone clapped for support.

Flora smiled. She loved to help!
