This summer, Joe and Marlow have a job at Grow and Play Summer Camp. They can't wait to show the campers all the fun they will have.

The bus is coasting down the road!

"Our goal is to have loads of fun today!" explain Joe and Marlow.

Joe and Marlow help the campers unload the bus. Then, they show them where they can stow their stuff.

Each cabin has a large window with plants growing below it.

"One camper can sleep below and one camper can sleep above," explains Marlow.

The campers moan with hunger.
They follow Joe down the road to eat.

They pass a toad, a doe, and a large oak tree. Roses also grow along the roadside.

Bowls of oatmeal and toast are waiting for the campers.

Joe looks out the window and sees Marlow by the boats.

"Who would like a boat ride?" says Joe. All the campers raise their hands.

"Follow me and I will show you the way!"

Some campers float in a boat and soak up the sun. Others throw nets to get minnows. And some campers row the boat as a crow goes past them.

The campers boast about having fun on the boats.

The sun begins to get low in the sky.

"This is the perfect time to roast marshmallows," Marlow says.

Just then, the doe tiptoes from behind the oak tree. The toad croaks before going to sleep. The crow rests on its branch.

After roasting marshmallows, Joe and Marlow lead the campers to their cabins.

They wash up with soap and groan as they lay on their pillows.

Joe and Marlow really showed the campers a load of fun at Grow and Play Summer Camp!
