Oh dear. Have you ever had a really bad day?

Let me share with you my really bad year!

It just wasn't fair. I woke up every day in fear. I was near tears!

I was upstairs getting prepared for school. I could not find a pair of socks to wear. I had to get a spare pair from my sister, Claire. I wished those bears would disappear! My friends would stare!

My family and I shared an airboat at the fair. The water was clear.
But when they went to steer the airboat, it was so loud I couldn't hear!

"My ears!" I said with fear as the water came near.

My year just kept getting worse.
I was sitting in a chair eating an eclair. A loud noise gave me a scare. My éclair went flying through the air. It fell on Claire, who was in a chair nearby.

It was clear this was not my year. My hair was too long. I went for a haircut and sat in the chair. The hairy barber with a beard got out his gear.

As he began to cut with the shears, I heard "Uh-oh."

There was no hair at all near my ear!

I was weary walking down the stairs. I dropped my project! It was a pair of bears in a shoebox. They shared a lair. I stared at the mess. I almost had tears! It was not fair!

All year, I had a flair for bad luck.
It seems sometimes we have good years and bad years.

So, better luck next year!

Next year will be better.
